HOUSEHOLDS IN GOD’S SERVICE

In the ancient world, “household” was a wide-reaching concept. When Joshua today speaks of his household serving the Lord, he meant not just those people who lived inside his walls or those related to him by blood or marriage; he meant slaves or servants and their families, and anyone indebted to him in any way. Even his livestock and other possessions would be consecrated to service of God. In our world, we value allowing individuals their freedom to choose how they live, and wouldn’t think of offering our pets to the service of God. But, as we discern our vocation as disciples baptized into Christ, we can come to realize how far-ranging the “households” of our lives still are: how we act toward our spouses, children, roommates or anyone we live with; our behavior with neighbors; or in public as we encounter many “strangers” every day in stores or traffic who suddenly are “next door” to us. How can we use our time, our resources, or gifts for selfless reasons rather than personal gain? No matter what life our witness to the Good News calls us to, we all have a “household” that must be consecrated to service of the Lord our God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This is the height of vacation season, but as anyone who has ever been to Rome in the summer knows, no time to visit there! The city is sweltering, and in a pre-air-conditioned world long ago, Romans figured out that they needed a break in the surrounding hills. Even the pope clears out. His destination is usually Castel Gandolfo, a lovely little hill town southeast of Rome, overlooking a tranquil lake. It has been a papal possession since about 1600, and in 1929, when most of the papal states were finally lost, the papal dwelling was given “extraterritorial rights,” meaning that it is an extension of Vatican City and not under Italian rule. The Vatican Observatory maintains telescopes here for decades, far from the glare of the city lights of Rome, but although the observatory offices remain here year round, the telescopes are in Arizona. Pope Francis spends less time here than his predecessors, though he still slows down the pace of his work in Rome.

Vacations can help us visit friends and relatives, and revive those human contacts that the pace of our lives keeps us from cultivating. The pope needs a break, and so do you. Vacation comes from a word meaning to empty oneself. There’s still time to clear the calendar for at least one golden summer day even if you don’t have a personal castle in the hills!

AUGUST 26, 2018

As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.
—Joshua 24:15

August 26th Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
May friends and families of women who are unexpectedly pregnant provide loving, life-affirming support for both mother and child; We pray to the Lord:

Simon Peter answered Jesus, “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.” John 6:68-69

CASAS AL SERVICIO DE DIOS
Antiguamente, la palabra "familia" tenía un significado muy amplio. Cuando Josué habla hoy de que su familia servirá al Señor, no se refería solo a las personas que vivían dentro de sus paredes ni a sus parientes de sangre o políticos; se refería a los esclavos o criados y sus familias y cualquier persona que estuviera en deuda con él por algún motivo. Incluso su ganado y demás bienes debían consagrarse a servir a Dios. En nuestro mundo, valoramos mucho la libertad de los individuos para elegir de qué manera vivir y no se nos ocurriría poner a nuestras mascotas al servicio de Dios. Pero, al discernir nuestra vocación como discípulos bautizados en Cristo, llegamos a comprender la diversidad de las "familias" de nuestra vida: la manera en que obramos con nuestros conyuges, hijos, compañeros de habitación o con quien sea que vivamos; nuestro comportamiento con los vecinos o en público ya que cada día nos topamos con muchos "extraños" en los negocios o en la calle, quienes de repente se convierten en "el vecino". ¿De qué manera podemos usar nuestro tiempo, recursos o dones con fines desinteresados en vez de con el fin de obtener algún beneficio personal? Sin importar en qué clase de vida demos testimonio de la Buena Nueva, todos tenemos una "familia" que debe consagrarse al servicio del Señor, nuestro Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
Narcisa de Jesús Martillo Morán nació el día de san Narciso (29 de octubre, 1832), hija de campesinos ecuatorianos. Vivía su vida como costurera y doméstica. Falleció en Perú en 1869. Su fe se distinguía por su amor a la presencia de Jesús Sacramento en la Eucaristía, sus prácticas de penitencia y sus obras de caridad.

Cuando aún era joven, conoció la vida de la recientemente beatificada y ahora santa, Marianita de Jesús, "la Azucena de Quíos" (1618-1645). La vida de esta santa mujer latina la inspiró a vivir como mejor cristiana, buscando ser guiada espiritualmente por una serie de directores espirituales.

En esta laica beata, encontramos dos puntos de reflexión para nosotros los latinos. El primero es la necesidad de conocer nuestros santos latinos no sólo para recordar a ellos sino para imitar su santidad. Lo segundo es la necesidad de buenos directores espirituales, ya sean sacerdotes, religiosos, religiosas, laicos o laicas. La dirección espiritual es una práctica antigua en nuestra Iglesia y muchos hombres y mujeres han sido directores espirituales para guiar a personas como Narcisa, ayudándoles en el camino a la santidad.

SAINT PADRE PIO

Who is he? What did he experience? How can he help us?

Biography of Padre Pio
Padre Pio was born Francesco Forgione in 1887. At age 7 he spoke of giving his life to God’s service. He entered the Capuchin Franciscan Order at age 15. While he was a seminarian and young priest, the Capuchins sent him home deathly ill numerous times. On a September day like any other what happened would change his life forever. Later he would write to his superior, “I saw before me a mysterious Person...His hands, feet and side were dripping with blood. The sight of Him frightened me: what I felt at that moment was indescribable. I thought I would die...the Lord intervened and strengthened my heart which was about to burst out of my chest. The Person disappeared and I became aware that my hands, feet and side were pierced and dripping with blood.” Padre Pio had just received the visible stigmata. The year was 1918. He welcomed his suffering which was constant. He was sent to a remote monastery at San Giovanni Rotundo “for a couple of weeks of mountain air”. He never left. He died at that same monastery on September 23 1968. He was beatified in 1999 and canonized in 2002 by Pope Saint John Paul II.

The Suffering of Padre Pio
Life in the world brings elements of suffering to everyone. Padre Pio experienced a great deal of physical and mental and spiritual suffering from his early years ‘til his death: stomach problems, typhoid fever, insomnia, migraines, anguish over persons separated by sin from Jesus, and, most remarkable of all, the stigmata, which are the five wounds of Jesus. These wounds appeared on Padre Pio’s body, bringing him acute physical pain and profound humiliation. They were the cause of several sanctions in his life, periods when Padre Pio was forbidden by Church authorities to celebrate Sacraments and to receive the public who sought him out. (These were times when authorities struggled to make sense of him.)

The Stigmata
Many are drawn to Padre Pio from a curiosity about his bearing the stigmata. They should understand these wounds of Padre Pio as a sign of his intimate love and ardent following of Christ, who, as it were, rewarded his faithful servant with the stigmata. (The wounds themselves were never offensive to the sense of smell nor infectious; they perfectly closed and disappeared at his death.)

Padre Pio’s Help to Us
Padre Pio said Mass humbly, heard confessions from dawn to dusk, and bore the wounds of Christ. He suffered as Christ did, for us and for our salvation. He did not merely accept suffering, he embraced it in his own person because he understood it to be the experience through which God’s life and love are poured out on the human race. Accordingly, he accepted and comforted all who came to him with their troubles, he understood them, he promised them a share in God’s love, and he counseled them to “pray, hope and don’t worry.” He does the same for us, now that he is with Christ forever.

His Final Message
Padre Pio had a special devotion to the Blessed Mother and prayed the rosary constantly, “Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today.”

“Pray, hope, and don’t worry”

Online Giving FAQs

What are the advantages of Online Giving?
Online Giving makes it easy for you to fulfill your financial commitments to the parish even when you are unable to attend Mass. You do not need to write a check or have cash available. Giving electronically also helps the parish staff budget more effectively.

How are my contributions automatically deducted from my account?
When you create your account, you enter your credit card and/or bank account information and then specify the amount you wish to contribute. Your contribution will be transferred from your account to the parish bank account.

Do I have to use a credit card?
The Online Giving system provides you with the option to offer both credit card and direct withdrawal (ACH) options for contributions. You do not have to use a credit card for contributions.

When will my contribution be deducted from my account?
The Online Giving system provides you the ability to select the date you would like your contribution to occur. You will receive an email notification prior to each contribution date, and your account will be debited on the date you specify.

If I do not write checks, then how do I balance my checkbook?
You will receive an email notification prior to each contribution date and also a confirmation email that your gift has been processed. These reminders will help you to remember to record the gift in your check register on the appropriate date. Electronic contributions are also recorded on your bank statement and in your Online Giving reports.

Can I contribute different amounts to different offerings? Can they be withdrawn at different times?
Can I use different accounts for the contributions?
The system provides you the capability to give different amounts to different offerings at different times. For example, assuming your parish has set up these gift offerings, you are able to give your regular weekly offering on the 1st of the month and your flower gift on the 10th of the month. You are able to use any number of bank and/or credit card accounts for your offerings.

What if I change bank accounts?
Simply log in and update your bank account information in your profile.

What if I want to stop using Online Giving?
You may cancel your authorization by deleting your credit card and/or bank account information along with your donation dates. Your contributions will stop immediately and the history will be secured.

How Do I Get Started?
1. Visit our parish website.
2. Click on the Online Giving link.
3. Click on the Create New Account link.

It’s that simple!
