TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: “Too much information!” We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don’t want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question: today it’s about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John’s outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been “too much information” for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem “too much” for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As election campaigns move into high gear, sometimes the phrase “the Catholic vote” is heard. It’s an interesting concept, since Catholics started out in this country as a very fragile group: fewer than forty thousand of us at the time of the first census in 1790, and only about 2 percent of the population by 1830. It was a priestless church for all intents and purposes, lay-led clusters of Catholics waiting patiently for the occasional visit of a priest, sustained by gathering when they could on Sunday for devotional prayer like itineraries and the rosary. They tried to hold on to their ancestral faith as best they could. Archbishop Jean-Louis Cheverus told one family in Maine to “every day say your prayers on your knees with affection, and every Sunday gather to hear the Gospel, to pray in common, and to quiz the children on the catechism.”

Inevitably, some became Protestant, but many more stayed Catholic from generation to generation, with very little encouragement or sacramental ministry from the clergy. Archbishop John Carroll, the first American bishop, tried to make Church law flexible: shortening the length of the fast before Communion, easing the Lenten fast, and even relaxing the rule of Sabbath rest at harvest time. Catholicism in England had been quietly sustained in this way for two centuries, and the first American Catholics carried on as had their ancestors, providing a fertile soil for the unprecedented success and phenomenal growth of the Church in our country.

DEMASIADA INFORMACIÓN PARA MI GUSTO

Existen una expresión de uso corriente: "Demasiada información para mi gusto". Generalmente decimos esto cuando alguien nos da detalles sobre su vida que no deseamos o no necesitamos saber. Hoy, cuando Santiago y Juan le hacen una pregunta simple a Jesús y le piden ocupar lugares de honor en el Reino, Jesús podría haberles dado una respuesta simple. Pero, como suele hacerlo, responde una pregunta con otra pregunta, en este caso se trata de beber el cáliz del sufrimiento. Luego, cuando los demás se indignan contra el atrevido pedido de Santiago y Juan, Jesús les dice algo que puede haber sido "demasiada información" para el gusto de los seguidores, quienes sólo estaban interesados en alcanzar la gloria. Pero esta información, aunque algunas veces pueda parecer "demasiada" para nuestro gusto, es vital para nuestras vidas como discípulos. Hoy en Isaias, en hebreos y en Marcos, conocemos esta información: sólo mediante el sufrimiento, la debilidad y el servicio generoso a los demás comprenderemos el Reino. Ésta es la información que necesitamos para encontrar nuestro lugar y poder ser honrados en el Reino de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Además de ser el Mes del Rosario, octubre es el Mes de las misiones porque fue durante este mes en 1492 que el terciario franciscano Cristóbal Colón trajo los primeros cristianos al continente americano. También lo es porque varios santos misioneros como Francisco de Asís, Pablo de la Cruz, y santas relacionadas con las misiones, como Teresa del Niño Jesús, son conmemorados durante este mes.

Uno de estos santos, Antonio María Claret, fue obispo de Cuba de 1850 a 1857. También fue fundador de los Hijos Misioneros del Corazón Inmaculado de María (Claretianos). El fundó su orden basando su afán por la misión de Cristo en los santos evangelios. Recomendaba que los cristianos debemos leer el Evangelio cada día para disponernos al servicio del Señor.

Un misionero no necesariamente es la persona que deja su nación para predicar el Evangelio a otros pueblos. El verdadero misionero es aquella persona que une su vida a la misión de Jesús, viviendo el Evangelio ya sea en su hogar, su trabajo, su parroquia o, si Dios así lo pide, en otras tierras.

Instant Wine Cellar

As we approach our Annual Auction Dinner Dance this November 17th, we need your help make this year’s event a dynamic success. Here’s how - buy a fabulous bottle of wine, valued at $20 or more, sign your name to the label, then drop it by the Rectory.

Similar to the balloon raffle, on the night of the Dinner Dance you may buy an Instant Wine Cellar raffle ticket and receive the corresponding bottle of wine – which you can enjoy with your Dinner that evening, or take home to enjoy at a later time.

Instant Wine Cellar raffle tickets will be on sale at the event and we encourage all of you to participate. If there are any unsold bottles of wine those will become available as an Instant Wine Cellar live auction item. Let’s make Prom Night 2018 a dazzling night of good food, good wine, and good friends, all in support of St. Paul’s Parish and St. Paul’s School.

Wine Donations accepted at the Rectory (M-F, 9 am - 4 pm) until Thursday, November 15, 2018

Help make this year’s Auction Dinner Dance a success!

Donate $25 (or more) Gift Card...
From your favorite place to shop or dine.
Donated gift cards are used for a fun “Balloon” activity – everyone loves to buy a balloon, and you can add to the fun!

Donate Wine...
And make it personal! Sign your name on the label of a bottle of your favorite wine, valued at $20 or more.
Donated wine is used in two ways: tickets are sold for some bottles to be enjoyed at the event; select bottles are bundled together to create an “Instant Wine Cellar” feature item to be sold during the live auction.

Donate Tickets or Certificates...
For a sporting event, an evening at the theatre, a museum, or a certificate for your favorite restaurant.

Attend the Event
Purchase tickets online at ... www.stpaulsf.org ... or, stop by the Rectory
