On behalf of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, I would like to invite your community at St. Paul to participate in the East Bay "Light The Night", to be held at Walnut Creek's Civic Park on Saturday, October 12, 2019. “Light The Night” is an inspirational community event that raises awareness and funding for groundbreaking research and treatment options to eliminate blood cancers.

There are two main ways to participate:

Come Walk With Us & Form a Team: Forming a team to support "Light The Night" is a great way to get involved in your community, raise awareness about cancer, and raise funds for research and support patients and their families. Simply click on the following link to organize a team and look for the button to "Register". www.lightthenight.org/events/east-bay Volunteering: We have different needs for day-of-event volunteers including registration, distributing t-shirts, and event setup. Signing up to volunteer is simple.

Just follow this link, fill out the form and submit. https://www.volunteerhq.org. Feel free to share this opportunity and link with others.

An unforgettable “break” for your marriage! Want something more lasting than a weekend vacation in Bahamas, Bermuda or the Mountains? Give your marriage the “best vacation break” by making a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend.

The next Marriage Encounter Weekends include
Aug 9-11, 2019 in San Francisco, CA; or Nov 8-10, 2019 in Menlo Park, CA
For more information and/or to register for a weekend, visit our website sanjosewme.org or contact Ken & Claranne at applications@sanjosewme.org or 408-782-1413

SECOND COLLECTION
Next Weekend July 6th/7th, there will be a Second Collection for the Preservation Fund. This collection helps in Preserving our beautiful Church. As always, your generosity, prayers and support are always appreciated

BROWN BAG LUNCHES
St Paul's Community Outreach Program will be collecting Brown Bag Lunches after all the Masses the weekend of July 6th/7th. Your generosity and support are always appreciated!

Please pray for those in our book of the sick and especially for the following: Kenneth Shea, Janet Abels, Bill Hontalas, Michael Richards, Dennis Curran, Hannah Nakagome, Jeanne Machello

For those who have died: John Miers, Taylor Blue Winsted, Ray Torres

June 30th Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man’s radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God’s love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life’s journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompanies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the cathedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

June 30th Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For our nation and our civic leaders: May they respect the right to live out our Faith and support laws and policies that protect human life; We pray to the Lord:

FOLLOW ME
TRANSFORMACIÓN RADICAL
En este Trigesimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas describen todo menos un tiempo ordinario. Son inquietantes y nos dejan preocupados. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento cuenta acerca de un joven que rompió radicalmente con el pasado para seguir un nuevo camino. El Evangelio describe cómo repentinamente cambia la vida que conocemos si seguimos la llamada de Cristo. El Salmo y Pablo nos aseguran que ese cambio de vida es posible solo a causa del poder del amor de Dios. Se nos presenta una dura elección. Para amar como Dios ama, debemos dejar atrás a nuestras vidas antiguas. Debemos dejar atrás no solo lo malo, el egoísmo y el mal sino lo ordinario, nuestro trabajo diario y lo importante, nuestras familias, nuestras vidas. Amar con Dios ama requiere una transformación radical, no una transición tranquila.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
El último sábado de junio o el primero de julio en un ayuntamiento de Valcudac, España, se pone en escena el Miserere escrito por Gustavo Adolfo Bécquer (1836-1870). Esta obra relata como un músico llega de noche a la Abadía de Feteró pidiendo posada. Los hermanos del monasterio lo invitaron a pasar la noche. Allí él les contó su vida pecaminosa y su deseo de encontrar un Miserere (Salmo 51) digno de expiar sus pecados ante Dios. Le contaron del Miserere del Monte que cantaban durante la noche los monjes difuntos de un Monasterio que había sido destruido siglos atrás. El músico afanado por encontrar su Miserere, corrió a la montaña donde escuchó aquel lamento y bello canto. Al regresar a la Abadía intentó escribir la música de aquel Miserere, pero lo único que logró fue volverse loco.

Aquello pobre hombre murió sin reconocer que cada quien debe entonar a su manera su propio y pobre Miserere mien (piedad de mi). Dios no nos perdona por la belleza o la fuerza de nuestra confesión, sino por su amor y su misericordia.

Toddler Learning Center for preschool readiness

open every Monday excluding holidays from 10:00 am to 11:30 am

Parents and caregivers are required to stay with their children

Toddler Learning Center offers several activity areas for you and your toddler to explore, designed to encourage self-directed learning, social interaction, and sensory stimulation. This is a wonderful way for your child to experience a stimulating social atmosphere while having a parent or caregiver close by.

We would enjoy your company any Monday; the sessions are free, donations encouraged thereafter; there is no obligation.

St. Paul's: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Parish Office

St. Paul’s: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow, is the theme chosen for, what we hope will be the final major restoration project within the Church.

Ever since its founding in 1880, faith, hope, and charity have held a special meaning for St. Paul’s Parish and community. In 1897, construction of our Church began using a pay as you go formula, funded by the parishioners. In 1994, we began the lengthy work to save our Parish, retrofit our church & build a new elementary school. Through God’s rich blessings, St. Paul’s community met each of these challenges with hard work and the support of generations of parishioners, school graduates, and benefactors: the true heart and soul behind the spires of our Church.

Building on our past to preserve our future, St. Paul’s must once again come together as a community, this time to raise funds for the necessary restoration of our beautiful, yet aging, stained-glass windows. Created in 1908, by Franz Mayer of Munich Germany, our stained-glass windows are original works of religious art, illustrating the life of Jesus and the lived history of God’s love: a history we continue in this present moment, as we hand down our faith, hope, and charity from one generation to the next.

Hogan Studios, a third-generation family-owned business, has begun restoration work on the St. Cecilia Rose window in the choir loft, funded through a generous gift from one parish family. Additionally, we have financial commitments from the Men of St. Paul, the Women of St. Paul, Littlest Angel Preschool, and the Lazzarini Family. We’ve also received a grant from the Victorian Alliance Preservation Fund.

With window restoration prices ranging from $3,900 to $37,905, St. Paul’s: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow offers you an opportunity to sponsor, or co-sponsor, a window. And, as with the original 1897 construction, our goal is to fully fund each window, while remaining debt-free. Every donation, no matter how great or small, will help us succeed, and we hope everyone will participate. We invite (challenge) you to support St. Paul’s, thereby preserving our heritage and history, yesterday, today, and tomorrow, for the generations to come.

Don’t wait, make your donation today; window sponsorship is first-come first-choice basis!
All donations will be acknowledged.

Please make your donation-check payable to: St. Paul’s Preservation Fund
