On behalf of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, I would like to invite your community at St. Paul to participate in the East Bay “Light The Night”. to be held at Walnut Creek’s Civic Park on Saturday, October 12, 2019. “Light The Night” is an inspirational community event that raises awareness and funding for groundbreaking research and treatment options to eliminate blood cancers.

There are two main ways to participate:

Come Walk With Us & Form a Team: Forming a team to support “Light The Night” is a great way to get involved in your community, raise awareness about cancer, fundraise for research and support patients and their families. Simply click on the following link to organize a team and look for the button to “Register”: www.lightthenight.org/events/east-bay

Volunteering: We have different needs for day-of-event volunteers including registration, distributing t-shirts and event setup. Signing up to volunteer is simple. Just follow this link, fill out the form and submit. https://www.volunteerlls.org Feel free to share this opportunity and link with others.

For additional information about Forming a Team for the Walk, please contact Lauren Echsen at 415-581-1191 or laurenechsen@lls.org

An unforgettable “break” for your marriage! Want something more lasting than a weekend vacation in Bahamas, Bermuda or the Mountains? Give your marriage the “best vacation break” by making a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend.

The next Marriage Encounter Weekends include
Aug 9-11, 2019 in San Francisco, CA; or Nov 8-10, 2019 in Menlo Park, CA
For more information and/or to register for a Weekend, visit our website sanjosewme.org or contact Ken & Claranne at applications@sanjosewme.org or 408-782-1413

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God’s care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It’s high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are “among the missing.” Some find the summer’s call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the “sabbatical” rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, “Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live.” By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society’s life.

LA PROVIDENCIA DE DIOS
Las lecturas de hoy celebran la providencia de Dios. No importa lo maravilloso (o doloroso) que sean nuestras relaciones, Dios siempre nos provee. Nadie cuida tanto de nosotros como lo hace Dios.

Isaías nos deleita con una imagen profundamente íntima de Dios cuidándonos "como una madre cuida de su hijo". El profeta nos describe no como los habituales "hijos de Dios" sino como "bebés". No debemos resistirnos a esta imagen, sino regocijarnos con ella. Confiando en el cuidado de Dios, nosotros podemos bajar la guardia y descansar como bebés en el regazo de nuestra madre.

La confianza de san Pablo en Dios le permite estar en paz. Audazmente dice que nadie puede "ponerle obstáculos" por que se ha entregado completamente a Jesús. Y cuando Jesús envía a sus discípulos a predicar y sanar, él los desafía a no cargar nada para ellos, sino tener fe en su guía.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo "apóstol de Brasil" fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil.

Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupi, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de São Paulo de Piratininga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el "santo volador" por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: "Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas" (Isaías 52:7).

2019 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

"I will show you my faith by my works." — James 2:18

Each year the Annual Appeal helps fund many worthy ministries and services that teach, witness, and celebrate our Catholic faith by supporting the work of Christ. Through our gifts to the Church, through the Annual Appeal, we truly respond to the needs of the least among us and, in turn, serve Christ Himself.

Please, prayerfully consider helping St. Paul’s meet its 2019 Annual Appeal Assessment.

Thank you for your support and generosity!
ST. PAUL'S: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow, is the theme chosen for, what we hope will be the final major restoration project within the Church.

Ever since its founding in 1880, faith, hope, and charity have held a special meaning for St. Paul’s Parish and community. In 1897, construction of our Church began using a pay as you go formula, funded by the parishioners. In 1994, we began the lengthy work to save our Parish, retrofit our church & build a new elementary school. Through God’s rich blessings, St. Paul’s community met each of these challenges with hard work and the support of generations of parishioners, school graduates, and benefactors: the true heart and soul behind the spires of our Church.

Building on our past to preserve our future, St. Paul’s must once again come together as a community, this time to raise funds for the necessary restoration of our beautiful, yet aging, stained-glass windows. Created in 1908, by Franz Mayer of Munich Germany, our stained-glass windows are original works of religious art, illustrating the life of Jesus and the lived history of God’s love: a history we continue in this present moment, as we hand down our faith, hope, and charity from one generation to the next.

Hogan Studios, a third-generation family-owned business, has begun restoration work on the St. Cecilia Rose window in the choir loft, funded through a generous gift from one parish family. Additionally, we have financial commitments from the Men of St. Paul, the Women of St. Paul, Littlest Angel Preschool, and the Lazzarini Family. We’ve also received a grant from the Victorian Alliance Preservation Fund.

With window restoration prices ranging from $3,900 to $37,905, ST. PAUL’S: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow offers you an opportunity to sponsor, or co-sponsor, a window. And, as with the original 1897 construction, our goal is to fully fund each window, while remaining debt-free. Every donation, no matter how great or small, will help us succeed, and we hope everyone will participate. We invite (challenge) you to support St. Paul’s, thereby preserving our heritage and history, yesterday, today, and tomorrow, for the generations to come.

Don’t wait, make your donation today; window sponsorship is first-come first-choice basis!
All donations will be acknowledged.

Please make your donation-check payable to: St. Paul’s Preservation Fund
