LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus’ teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In recent weeks, we have reviewed how the Churches of East and West have enriched one another, and this past Thursday’s solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was born in the Eastern Church. It is a gift from the ancient Church of Jerusalem, a commemoration of the death of Mary, and a feast charged with a deep sense of the Resurrection. Mary, the first disciple, is the first to share fully in Christ’s victory over death. In the tradition of the East, August 15 is the “Dormition of the Theotokos,” or the “Falling Asleep of the God-bearer.” There is no shadow of death or gloom in the theology, since this is seen as a transformation of Mary’s life into a heavenly and immortal existence. There is a sense in the tradition that she who made earth heavenly and exalted the human race by her faithfulness is glorified today.

A persistent legend among Orthodox Christians tells how all the disciples, except Thomas, who was preaching in India, were present at Mary’s death and burial, and sat by the tomb for three days. On the third day, Thomas saw Mary’s body rising to heaven. She greeted him as “my friend,” and he was escorted by angels to proclaim her assumption to the others, who then realized her tomb was empty. Thus Thomas, the one who expressed doubt at the resurrection of Christ, received a gift from Mary: the chance to proclaim resurrection faith to the disciples.

August 18th Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For those close to death: May they persevere in their final days with their eyes fixed on Jesus in hope of the heavenly joy that awaits them;

We pray to the Lord:

I have come to set the earth on fire.

LA FE Y LA ESPERANZA

En las lecturas de hoy la fe y la esperanza están muy unidas. Los israelitas sabían cuando la Pascua se acercaba, y eso no les atemorizaba, sino que tenían fe y animo; “y de común acuerdo se impusieron esta ley sagrada”. En esto podemos vislumbrar un anuncio de la Eucaristía que celebramos de acuerdo al mandato del Señor Jesús “Hagan esto en memoria mía”.

Vemos que Abraham, Sara, Isaac y Jacob murieron en la fe, aun cuando ellos no vieron cumplida la promesa. Vivimos con la esperanza que nuestra fe llegará a su cumplimiento cada vez que celebramos este sacrificio. Nosotros tampoco debemos de tener miedo, sino tener esperanza que nuestra fe llegará a su cumplimiento en la venida de Cristo.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hace casi 2000 años, Jesús declaró que “los zorros tienen guaridas, y las aves del cielo sus nidos, pero el Hijo del hombre no tiene donde reclinar la cabeza”. Lamentablemente en las calles y calles jones del mundo este dicho se realiza diariamente en tantos abandonados por la sociedad que viven sin techo ni hogar. En los años 40 el santo jesuita, Alberto Hurtado de Chile quiso darle al Hijo del hombre un lugar donde reclinar su cabeza recogiéndolos a los niños y a los adultos indigentes.

Su ejemplo llamó la atención de otros cristianos que se unieron a sus esfuerzos y así en 1944 fundaron la asociación benéfica “Hogar de Cristo”. Este hogar se dedica aún todavía a acoger, educar y rehabilitar a los necesitados dándoles las herramientas necesarias para poder depender de sí mismos. También vela por sus almas dándoles una formación total de cuerpo, alma y espíritu.

En fin, el Hogar de Cristo se dedica a difundir la realidad de los pobres por medio de nuestro llamado bautismal a la responsabilidad que tenemos en darle al Hijo de hombre un lugar para reclinar su cabeza.

18 de agosto 20° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Por quienes están cerca de la muerte:
para que perseveren en sus últimos días
mirando fijamente a Jesús con la esperanza del gozo celestial que los espera;
roguemos al Señor:

Legacy Giving Workshop
Saturday, September 14, 2019
10:00 AM ~ 11:30 AM

Legacy gifts make a profound difference
- Parishes - including St. Paul’s - have received legacy gifts over the years to support parish programs and renovation projects
- Charitable bequests can reflect and carry on one’s lifetime values and connection to a community

How might you plan your legacy giving to benefit the people and communities of your choice?
- Planning for a legacy gift can be simple
- Words like “tax” make the topic seem overly complicated
- Experts can help inform your decisions.

Our informal event features two subject matter experts (a CPA and an attorney) who will share their insights, and answer your questions, helping you understand the choices and benefits of legacy giving

CHOOSING PEACE
IS THE CATHOLIC CHURCH RETURNING TO GOSPEL NONVIOLENCE?

MARIE DENNIS will give her keynote address on how various nonviolent approaches can effectively transform conflict, and how the institutional Catholic Church can foster peaceful solutions by adopting active nonviolence as its Gospel-based default approach.

Marie Dennis serves on the executive committee of the Catholic Nonviolence Initiative and was on the board of Pax Christi International for 20 years, 12 as co-president.

Break-out Sessions:

LET’S STEP BACK TO STEP FORWARD: A TIMELINE ON RACE, FAITH & IMMIGRATION IN THE U.S.: Miriam Noriega, program director for the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity, will analyze the history of the intersections between racism and U.S. immigration law, and the role of the faith community.

HOW TO MAKE NUCLEAR ABOLITION A REALITY: Nick Mele, a retired U.S. diplomat and long-time Pax Christi member, will lead an interactive discussion on how best to present Catholic teaching on war and the urgency of nuclear abolition.

THE SPIRITUALITY OF NONVIOLENCE: Fr. Tom Bonacci, C.P., the executive director of the Interfaith Peace Project, will use the Samaritan parable to explore the philosophy of nonviolence as a practical way of life and to show how to confront violence while not engaging in it.
