POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES
With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year’s Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend’s scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with “timid deliberations” and “unsure plans.” Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to “let the good you do be voluntary.” Jesus instructs “great crowds” traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples’ lifelong labors.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians share a love for the Byzantine liturgy because it is during the Eucharist that the Church is most true to its identity, expresses its integrity, and discovers its vocation. Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians celebrate essentially the identical liturgy, with only very slight variations. It is a fairly complex ritual weaving together three separate layers of prayers: a liturgy prayed in the sanctuary by priests, often hidden by a curtain or screen; a liturgy sung by the assembly and led by a deacon in front of a screen formed of painted icons; and a third layer of private prayer by the priest, who prays in support of the deacon and the faithful. It is an eyes-wide-open experience, gorgeous in visuals, and filled with the sound of God’s people singing prayer. The energy of the worship centers on the presence of Christ, largely through an awareness of heaven touching earth when the Church gathers to celebrate.

In the late twentieth century, Latin Rite Catholics were encouraged to embrace a style of worship that was “full, conscious, and active,” a value that has never been lost in the East. The liturgy has great impact in its beauty, in its poetry and contemplation, and by the actions of bowing, signing with the cross, and chanting that are required of the assembly. Contact with the Eastern Church reveals some key values that have been obscured in our own Church and are slowly being recovered.

DESAFIOS POSTERIORES AL VERANO

Con algo de suerte, los placeres del verano continuarán aún después del fin de semana del Día del Trabajo: recreación estimulante (quizá con un chapuzón en la alberca) o relajación agradable en la terraza (con sabrosas parrilladas al aire libre). La verdad es que, para algunos de nosotros, este año el Día del Trabajo se adelantó demasiado. Con clases escolares que ya empezaron hace tiempo, los horarios para las comidas y el ir a dejar a los niños a la escuela necesitaron reajustarse para coordinar los deportes de los chicos con los compromisos de los adultos. Algunos programas de catequesis y actividades parroquiales ya también empezaron. No debe extrañarnos que las Escrituras de este fin de semana parezcan un poco como desafíos posteriores al verano. Por ejemplo, el libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda que los creyentes en Dios nunca pueden contentarse con "tímidas deliberaciones" y "planes seguros". Pablo desafía a un seguidor de él y además amigo de toda la vida, Filermón, para "dejar que lo bueno sea voluntario". Jesús enseña a grandes multitudes que viajan con él, incluyéndonos, en tres cosas necesarias para que todos los verdaderos discípulos lo logren. En este anticipado fin de semana de otoño, nuestras Escrituras describen las labores de toda la vida de los discípulos.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1976 un grupo de madres argentinas comenzó una vigilia silenciosa en frente de las oficinas gubernamentales en la Plaza de Mayo. Vestían de negro, con un pañuelo blanco en la cabeza y protestaban la desaparición de sus hijos. Poco a poco esta protesta de madres se fue expandiendo a El Salvador y otros países donde agentes del gobierno hacían desaparecer a los que obraban por la justicia y el bienestar del pueblo.

En Latinoamérica la Virgen de los Dolores que viste de negro y llora la muerte de su hijo quien estaba en la flor de la vida se ha transformado en la Madre de los Desaparecidos. Ella acompaña silenciosamente en la protesta de tanta latina que ha perdido hijos, maridos y hermanos a autoridades injustas o cobardes.

La vigilia de las Madres de la Plaza de Mayo terminó en enero de 2006 cuando por fin se encontraron con un gobierno que busca a los desaparecidos con ellas. Lamentablemente en muchos lugares las madres de los desaparecidos todavía no pueden contar con las autoridades civiles. Con ellas María se une en protesta silenciosa.

Legacy Giving Workshop
Saturday, September 14, 2019
10:00 AM ~ 11:30 AM

Legacy Gifts Make a Profound Difference
- Parishes - including St. Paul's - have received legacy gifts over the years to support parish programs and renovation projects
- Charitable bequests can reflect and carry on one's lifetime values and connection to a community

How might you plan your legacy giving to benefit the people and communities of your choice?
- Planning for a legacy gift can be simple
- Words like "tax" make the topic seem overly complicated
- Experts can help inform your decisions.

Our informal event features two subject matter experts (a CPA and an attorney) who will share their insights, and answer your questions, helping you understand the choices and benefits of legacy giving.

What: Legacy Giving Seminar
When: Saturday, September 14, 2019
From 10:00 am ~ 11:30 am; coffee & light refreshments will be served
Where: St. Paul's Rectory
221 Valley Street, San Francisco
Why: Learn Key Ways to Plan for legacy gifts and benefits
Who: Features guest speakers
in tax (CPA); trusts, estates, and wills (attorney)

RSVPs appreciated to help us plan our refreshments

Have a great school year!

The first weeks of school present opportune moments to recommit to your child’s academic and spiritual growth over the next ten months. Try these tips:

Pray through the day—A key to spiritual strength is prayer. Make prayer central to your family life. Pray together before school and in gratitude when the day is over. Pray before and after meals. Ask your children their intentions so you can pray on their behalf. Prayer brings us together when we are apart.

Recommit to weekly Mass. There is no more important activity any family can share. When we center ourselves around the Eucharist, we are given the spiritual food we need to be strong in our faith.

Family meal. Studies attest to the importance of family meals to school success and spiritual formation. Make every effort to gather for family dinners each night. Start with prayer and focus on conversation. Don’t let anything interfere with this family time.

Homework help. Youngsters need a quiet environment in which to do homework, the necessary supplies, support and supervision. Work with teachers to learn what your students need to be successful. Treat religious education homework with the importance of any core subject. Its benefits are lifelong.

Share the love. Choose many different ways to tell children how much you love them. Be generous.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist?

When Jesus said, “whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life” (John 6:54), he spoke literally. Later, taking bread and wine, Jesus changed them into his body and blood, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body” and “this is my blood” (Matthew 26:26-28). The Catholic Church calls this action transubstantiation. When the priest consecrates the bread and wine into the Holy Eucharist, Jesus is literally present—Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity—just as he said.
Do fussy children belong in church?

If you have ever raced into the pew after Mass has started, juggled a crying child during the homily or settled spats during the Consecration, you may feel that fellow parishioners are judging you harshly. It may seem like church is only suited to perfectly behaved and pious families. Yet messy, wonderful families of God are critical to the Catholic Church.

Children are our future. Parents are the most influential teachers of faith and catechesis for their children. Children first learn about God’s love from their parents. That makes you valued and important to building up the Catholic Church. Those occasionally scruffy, sometimes noisy children you bring into the church are our future.

The Church is for you. Jesus truly comes to us in the Eucharist at every Mass. There is no better nourishment for our souls than His Body and Blood. Come to Mass weekly and give children opportunities for his grace. Seek support in your family faith journey. It’s what the Church is meant to do.

Scripture

Luke 16:19-31, Faith formed by love

In this passage, Jesus told the story of Lazarus, a beggar who lay suffering, miserable and ignored outside the home of a rich man. By contrast, the rich man had a wonderful and comfortable life on earth, clueless to what was happening outside his very door. Yet in the afterlife, it’s the rich man who suffers torment and begs for relief.

The rich man wasn’t a bad man. The parable didn’t say he got his wealth through dishonest means or had done anything evil. He was blind to the suffering of others. He knew what God expected of him, didn’t do it, and didn’t care. Jesus portrays his suffering in the afterlife as just punishment. What can a parent do? The Bible makes it plain that Jesus wants us to love each other as he loves us. Love is more than warm feelings. When we live our faith, we transform our prayers into acts of love as Jesus asked. It isn’t always easy or pleasant doing the right thing, but the reward for doing what Jesus asked will be eternal joy.

Parent TALK

A girl named Ryan was new to Tessa’s class this year. She must have missed her old school and friends because Ryan cried the first few days of school. Tessa got upset when the other girls made fun of her during recess. She asked how she could help.

I explained how Ryan must feel coming to a new city, a new home, and a new school. I remembered that I had moved when I was Tessa’s age and told her how it felt.

Then I asked Tessa for ideas for how she could help Ryan feel welcome. She resolved to sit next to her at lunch and play with her at recess. She also had a notebook and matching pen she decided to give to Ryan as a welcome gift.

It must have worked because Tessa said Ryan didn’t cry at recess. Instead, she smiled and my girl learned compassion.

Feasts & Celebrations

September 15 – Our Lady of Sorrows. In Luke 2:35, Simeon predicted Mary’s sorrows as “a sword piercing” her soul. This partly referred to a time when Mary would stand at the foot of the Cross. Despite her sorrow, Mary stood dignified and fearless while others ran away. Mary shows us how to respond to suffering with love and faith.

September 17 – St. Robert Bellarmine (1621). A Jesuit, Robert was a scholar devoted to studying and writing about Church history, Scripture, and the fathers of the Catholic Church. He worked to accurately record Church doctrine to explain and protect it from attack by Protestants. Although a cardinal and counselor to Pope Clement VIII, he lived a simple life.

September 29 – Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. Members of the third hierarchy of angels around the throne of God, archangels are entrusted with important missions to mankind such as St. Gabriel’s visit to the Blessed Mother to tell her she had been chosen as the Mother of God.
