Good Bye Sister Anne,
Sr. Anne will be leaving us this weekend for her new home in Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Iowa. Sr. Anne is the last of the vocation from St. Paul’s Parish. She was also the last BVM to minister in our school from 1984 to 2001 as both teacher and principal. Her family were parishioners for many years and Sr. Anne graduated from St. Paul’s High School. She’s been an active member of our parish family and a regular, Eucharistic Minister at the 4:30pm Mass for many years. We want to wish Sr. Anne well on her new journey and will keep her in our prayers. Safe Travels Sister Anne!! We will miss you, your St. Paul’s Family!

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD
The Twenty-third Psalm, today’s responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads “Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage” (Psalm 23:4) connects this week’s scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: “I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
The fact that many monastic churches do not have a prominent tabernacle shapes the patterns of liturgical prayer. Monastic communities often protect the ancient value of “receiving from the same sacrifice,” meaning that the communicants are assured that what they eat and drink in the Holy Mysteries actually comes from the same celebration. It surprises many to learn that the Church does not foresee, nor does it provide for, Communion of the faithful from the reserved Sacrament. Liturgical laws have long defended your right to receive from the same sacrifice, the same Mass, that you attend.

At one time, of course, the bread for the Eucharist was the ordinary bread of the day, except unleavened, probably prepared at home. It was broken and distributed to the faithful. Early on the loaf itself was referred to as the hostia in Latin, meaning the “sacrifice,” the same word for the sacrificial animal in Jewish worship, and for Jesus as the Lamb of God. By giving his life on the cross, Jesus became the hostia for us. To this day in the Greek Church, one of the tasks of the priest’s wife is to bake the bread for the Divine Liturgy, sometimes in a bakery oven dedicated to that purpose and called a “Bethlehem.”

Today’s familiar individual hosts first appeared in the eleventh century at about the time when tabernacles were coming into use. The turn away from “breadly” bread allowed the hosts to be reserved since they did not spoil like regular bread, and made the annual “Easter duty” counts easier.

EL LLAMADO DEL BUEN PASTOR

El salmo responsorial de hoy es el Salmo 23 y sin duda es el más conocido de los salmos. Los versos que rezan: “Aunque camine por cañadas oscuras, / nada temo, porque tú vas conmigo: / tu vara y tu cayado me sosiegan” (Salmo 23:4) se vinculan en las lecturas bíblicas de esta semana con el maravilloso relato sobre el camino a Emmaús, que escuchamos la semana pasada. El Señor Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor, está constantemente a nuestro lado. Nos llama por nuestro nombre, atrayéndonos a una más profunda relación con él. Ese llamado, hecho a cada uno de nosotros en el momento de nuestro bautismo, lleva la promesa del Buen Pastor: “Yo he venido para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia” (Juan 10:10).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 19 de abril en Uruguay se conmemora a la Virgen del Verdún, que está colocada sobre una columna de seis metros en uno de los cerros que rodean la ciudad de Minas. Esta imagen fue puesta allí por el párroco don José De Luca en 1900. Su intención era dedicar esta imagen en recuerdo del siglo diecinueve y recibir así el siglo veinte, dedicándolo a María Inmaculada en honor de Cristo Redentor.

En el 2007 la peregrinación a la Virgen del Verdún llevaba como lema “De la mano de María, discípulos y misioneros de Jesucristo”. Este bello refrán nos recuerda que vamos caminando de la mano de María, nuestra hermana en la fe, para ser como ella, discípulos de su hijo y misioneros del mensaje redentor de Jesucristo. No obstante, hay que reconocer que mucho cristianos, especialmente nosotros, los latinoamericanos, nos quedamos sólo con María y nunca llegamos a Jesús. Eso a María no le gusta ya que toda reverencia a ella debe abrirmos a recibir a su único hijo, Jesús, y adorarlo como nuestro único Señor y Salvador.

7 de mayo de 2017
Archbishop George Niederauer died May 2, 2017 at Nazareth House in San Rafael. He was 80 years of age and had been living at Nazareth House for several months following a diagnosis of interstitial lung disease. Archbishop Niederauer was the eighth Archbishop of San Francisco.

George Niederauer was born June 14, 1936 in Los Angeles, the only child of George and Elaine [Sullivan] Niederauer. After attending Catholic elementary schools, he began studies in 1950 at Saint Anthony High School in Long Beach, where he met 14-year-old William Levada. (Their close friendship has spanned 65 years, and Cardinal Levada returned from Rome in recent weeks to be by his side.) After high school George Niederauer entered Stanford University for one year, and then entered the seminary formation program in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. In 1958, he received his B.A. in Philosophy from Saint John Seminary in Camarillo. He then completed a four-year program in Theology at Saint John’s Seminary, and received a Bachelor’s Degree in Sacred Theology from the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. During his seminary studies he also received a Master's Degree in English Literature from Loyola University (now Loyola-Marymount) in Los Angeles.

Archbishop Niederauer was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles 55 years ago, on April 30, 1962. After serving in a parish assignment, and earning his doctorate in English Literature from the University of Southern California, he was appointed to Saint John’s Seminary College where he taught English and served as spiritual director. During his years at Saint John’s he was named a Prelate of Honor by Pope John Paul II, with the title of Monsignor. He was appointed Rector of the Seminary in 1987 and after a five-year term, he had completed 27 years of service to the formation of future priests at the seminary. Monsignor Niederauer then served as co-director of the Cardinal Manning House of Prayer for Priests.

On November 3, 1994, he was appointed Eighth Bishop of the Diocese of Salt Lake City. Bishop Niederauer’s episcopal ordination took place at the Cathedral of the Madeleine on January 25, 1995. He served for 11 years in Utah, where he received universal praise from both Catholics and Mormons alike for his strong sense of social justice, deep concern for peace, and commitment to nonviolence. In 2004, he published a spiritual reflection on the Christian Life, titled, Precious as Silver: Imagining Your Life with God. He was appointed Archbishop of San Francisco on December 15, 2005 by Pope Benedict XVI, and was installed February 15, 2006. Archbishop Niederauer succeeded his classmate and friend, then-Archbishop William J. Levada, who had been appointed by Pope Benedict XVI to serve in the Vatican as Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith the previous May.

As Archbishop of San Francisco for the next six years, Archbishop Niederauer was known for his spiritual leadership, intelligence and wisdom, compassion and humor, and was always focused on his responsibility to live and teach the faith. When he was named Archbishop, he was asked what he would want the people of the Archdiocese of San Francisco to know about him. He answered, “I’ve chosen the motto for my coat of arms, ‘to serve and to give’, because I am convinced servant leadership in the Church defines the role of the bishop. This is the message of the Gospel, as in the reading from Mark, Chapter 10, which was included in my Installation Mass. There we hear James and John asking for special places next to Jesus. He says to all his apostles that the one who would ‘be first among you must be the servant of the rest because the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for the many.’ Leading by serving: it’s easily misunderstood, but it seems central to me.”

Archbishop Niederauer retired as Archbishop of San Francisco on October 4, 2012, and moved to Menlo Park, where he lived with Cardinal Levada in residence on the grounds of Saint Patrick’s Seminary & University. During his nearly five years of retirement, he generously responded to frequent requests to give retreats – to bishops, priests, deacons, men and women religious, and to seminarians. In January this year, he moved to Nazareth House for care during his final illness.

The following arrangements for Archbishop Niederauer are now in place:
