FEAR NOT
How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today’s scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that “reigned from Adam to Moses” (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear—“Do not be afraid!” The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
The Eucharistic Prayers at the heart of our liturgy have a long history, beginning with the extemporaneous prayers of the early Christians. The presiders gave thanks from their hearts, not from any prearranged text, over the gifts of bread and wine. When the assembly had the sense that enough was said, someone would call out “Amen!” and that was that. For the most part, the plan flowed directly from Jewish meal prayers, which always recalled God’s mighty deeds. Some other markers and signposts were added almost everywhere fairly early, like the presider’s call to attention: “Lift up your hearts!”

Scholars have provided us with translations of many early texts. These have actually helped us craft new liturgical prayers, because until the liturgical reforms of forty years ago, no one could recall any prayer but the Roman Canon, now called Eucharistic Prayer I. For hundreds of years in the West, it was our only Eucharistic Prayer, and it was only in Latin. But the history of our Eucharistic Prayers is amazingly fruitful, and models have come down to us that have yielded new insights and expressions. The old custom of improvising texts according to a master plan has not endured, but we have now rediscovered a plan of standardizing the text while allowing for a great variety.

June 25th Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
For those afraid to welcome life: May the Lord fill their hearts with confidence in His loving care and provide for every need; We pray to the Lord:
25 de junio 12° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¡NO TENGAN MIEDO!

¿Cómo es que las personas encuentran paz frente al sufrimiento y la muerte? Eso es el mensaje de las Escrituras de hoy. Escuchamos el sufrimiento de Jeremías y del salmista. Escuchamos de la muerte que “reino desde Adán hasta Moisés” (Romanos 5:14). Escuchamos de los miedos de los Doce cuando Jesús los envió a las periferias para predicar y sanar.

En medio de toda esta tribulación hay un mensaje que suena fuerte y claro: “¡No tengan miedo!” El Dios que salvó a Jeremías y al salmista y a Jesús está plenamente presente para salvarnos por medio del extraordinario don de Jesucristo. No tenemos nada y a nadie a quien temer.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1769 los misioneros franciscanos establecieron la primera misión en lo que hoy es la ciudad de San Diego, California. Bajo la dirección de fray Junípero Serra, los hermanos menores pudieron establecer otras ocho misiones, incluyendo la ciudad de San Francisco, en 1776.

Junípero o José Miguel Serra, fue hijo de padres campesinos de la Isla de Mallorca, España. Ingresó a la Orden de los hermanos menores (franciscanos) a los dieciséis años y con el tiempo, llegó a ser profesor de filosofía, pero su verdadero deseo era ser misionero en el continente americano, lo que hoy conocemos como Hemisferio Occidental.

En 1749, su orden religiosa lo envió a México como administrador del Colegio Apostólico. Poco a poco se fue desprendiendo de sus cargos académicos para establecer misiones entre los indígenas. Aunque algunos afirman lo contrario, Junípero fue arduo defensor de los nativos. En California, más de una vez tuvo problemas con los soldados españoles, debido a que éstos abusaban de los amerindios, problemas que lo llevaron a defender los derechos humanos de los nativos ante el Virrey en México. Sus esfuerzos por cristianizar los indígenas de California tuvieron como resultado más de 6000 bautizos durante sus quince años en esa región.

Archbishop John Raphael Quinn, aged 88, passed away peacefully on June 22, 2017; his funeral arrangements have been set as follows:

Vigil: Sunday, July 9, 2017
7:00 PM
Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption, 1111 Gough Street, San Francisco

Funeral Mass: Monday, July 10, 2017
10:00 AM
Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption, San Francisco

John Quinn was born in Riverside, California on March 28, 1929, one of four children born to Elizabeth Constance [Carroll] and Ralph Joseph Quinn. As the youngest child by many years, John was raised largely by his eldest sister, Rita, and by his siblings, Graham and Constance, after their mother entered the workforce. Elizabeth worked as a secretary for the Riverside County Tax Assessor to support the family following their father's death in 1953. After completing high school, John entered the seminary for the Diocese of San Diego. He was sent to Rome to complete his studies, and received his degree from the Pontifical Gregorian University. Fr. Quinn was ordained to the priesthood in Rome for San Diego on July 19, 1953. He was initially assigned to serve at St. Francis de Sales Church in Riverside. In the years that followed, he taught systematic theology at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in San Diego, and served as President of St. Francis College Seminary in San Diego. In 1964, he was appointed Provost of the University of San Diego College for Men. He soon orchestrated the merger between the men's and women's colleges, leading to the creation of the University of San Diego. On October 21, 1967, at the age of 38, Fr. Quinn was appointed auxiliary bishop of San Diego. His episcopal ordination followed on December 12, 1967. While Auxiliary Bishop, he served as pastor of St. Thérèse Parish in San Diego. On November 30, 1971, during the fall meeting of the bishops' conference in Washington DC, he learned from the Apostolic Nuncio of his appointment as the fifth bishop of the Diocese of Oklahoma City and Tulsa. On December 13, 1972, that diocese was split, and the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City was created. Early in 1973, he became Archbishop of Oklahoma City, and in 1974, was asked by Pope John Paul VI to participate in the 1974 World Synod of Bishops. Archbishop Quinn returned to his roots in California with his installation as the sixth Archbishop of San Francisco, succeeding Archbishop John McGucken on April 26, 1977. Within the year he was elected by his brother bishops to a three-year term as President of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. On January 27, 1981, Archbishop Quinn oversaw the establishment of the Diocese of San Jose, redefining again the boundaries of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Over the decades that followed, the Archbishop participated in two additional synods in Rome. He served for five years as a consultant to the Congregation for the Clergy, and in 1983, he was appointed by Pope John Paul II as Pontifical Delegate for Religious Life in the United States. As Pontifical Delegate, he was charged with bringing U.S. bishops together with men and women religious, and charged with examining the causes for the decline in vocations. In San Francisco, he focused on social justice among many other responsibilities, quietly working with Catholic Charities to address the challenges faced by the underprivileged and underserved. Together with Catholic Charities, he reached out early with support for those with HIV and AIDS. On December 27, 1995, after leading the faithful of the Archdiocese of San Francisco for 18 years, Archbishop Quinn retired. He took up an appointment as visiting fellow at Oxford University's Campion Hall, and in 1996, he delivered the Campion Hall Centennial Lecture. His lecture was written in response to Pope John Paul II's 1995 encyclical on ecumenism, "Ut Unum Sint" ("they may be one"), and led to the 1999 publication of Archbishop Quinn's first book, "THE REFORM OF THE PAPACY: THE COSTLY CALL TO CHRISTIAN UNITY," winner of a Catholic Press Award. In 2000 and 2001, the Archbishop was a member of the faculty of the University of San Diego, where he held the John R. Portman Chair of Roman Catholic Theology. He later taught at Santa Clara University and at the University of San Francisco, and was a member of the Catholic Theological Society of America. The Archbishop remained an intellectual giant in the wider Catholic Church, writing on many subjects including the empowerment of bishops' conferences, the appointment and transfer of bishops, the establishment of dioceses, questions of liturgy, and matters of Catholic practice and observance – always within the framework of Catholic communion and unity. His second book, "EVER ANCIENT, EVER NEW: NEW STRUCTURE OF THE COMMUNICATION IN THE CHURCH" was published in 2012. Archbishop Quinn contributed to many publications, including the Jesuit magazine AMERICA, to which he began contributing in 1968. He gave a powerful address to the National Federation of Priests' Council, published by the magazine on May 3, 2010 (Reference: https://www.americamagazine.org/content/all-things/archbishop-quinn-priests-do-not-despair). In his later years, Archbishop Quinn had become internationally known for his scholarly writing. He lived in retirement in Menlo Park, traveling frequently to lead retreats and give talks until this past November when, as you know, he fell ill in Rome. After two months in hospital in Rome, he returned to San Francisco via air ambulance for additional intensive care treatment, and had just left Saint Mary's Medical Center last Friday for rehabilitation and specialized care at the Jewish Home of San Francisco. Just before his illness, he had completed a book on the First Vatican Council of 1870 that will now be published posthumously. As noted above, funeral arrangements have been planned at Saint Mary's Cathedral, which Archbishop Quinn had called, "...a window on the infinite, lifting the human spirit to the Infinite and Eternal Beauty which is God." Please join Cardinal Blase Cupich, Cardinal Levada, Archbishop Paul Coughley, Archbishop Wester, Bishop McLay, Bishop Justice, Bishop Wang, Bishop Carlos Sevilla, Bishop Daniel Walsh, St. Rosina Conrotto, PBVM and the many leaders of women religious with whom he worked, and pray for Archbishop Quinn and his family. He is preceded by his siblings and by his niece Mary Elizabeth ("Pat" Bash), but is survived by his sister Rita Bash's children: Bill (Julie), Ralph, Stephen Roger, and John (Cheryl), all of Riverside; and is survived by his sister Constance Dejarnette's children: Dennis (Carolyn), Michael (Ellen), Carroll Evers, Gregory (Adrienne), Judy, and Leslie (Jeff) Astel, of California, Washington and Oregon. I thank the many physicians, nurses, and caregivers at Salvator Mundi International Hospital in Rome, at Saint Mary's Medical Center in San Francisco, and at Jewish Home of San Francisco for the focused and competent, gentle and supportive care Archbishop Quinn received. Your letters of condolence may be sent to the family, c/o 426 41st Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94121.
