Disaster Relief Collection -
The Archbishop does not want to burden the Pastors and their Parishes, but he also wants the pastors to be able to respond to the need and desire of their parishioners to provide help to areas in need, especially in those regions where the parishioners have close ties. So, once again there will be a substantial contribution from the Archdioceses to the relief efforts in the aftermath of Hurricanes Maria and Jose and a separate contribution to help those suffering from the multiple earthquakes in Mexico. No parish will be obligated to take up a collection for Hurricane or Earthquake relief but if the pastor is responding to the to the urgings of his faithful, and a pastor would like to take up a collection, please do so.

St. Paul’s will be taking a collection Sunday Oct 14th/15th there will be a basket placed on the Altar for Earthquake and Hurricane Relief. Please drop your donations in the basket.

BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today’s readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah’s song concerning his friend’s vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today’s Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be “put . . . to a wretched death” (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Before long, as we’ve seen, the four newly constructed Eucharistic Prayers became two. The old Roman Canon faded away into relative disuse after 1600 unbroken years, sometimes heard only at Christmas Midnight Mass or the Easter Vigil. The new Eucharistic Prayer IV, at least in its English form, grates a bit on most hearers, and besides is meant only for Ordinary Time. The reconstruction of the ancient prayer of Hippolytus, Eucharistic Prayer II, is the most familiar, but its brevity sometimes creates an imbalance with the Liturgy of the Word. No wonder that as soon as the creative juices began to flow at the Vatican, people worldwide were trying their hands at new prayers.

In 1967, even before the final shape of the new Mass was announced, bishops were asking to adapt that celebration for the needs of children. They wanted to clarify what ought to happen when large numbers of children are at Mass: what could be adapted, omitted, or shortened. Experimentation had already begun. Separate Liturgies of the Word for children were by this time commonplace in Holland and elsewhere in Europe. Catechists were saying that many of our liturgical forms were too complex for the children in their charge, and priests were making adaptations on their own. Clearly, the Vatican had to take this seriously.

READING FOR THE WEEK

October 8th Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
(‘Share the Journey’ Week of Prayer and Action)
For all of us, who are called by name to be disciples of Christ:
May he give us courage to open our hearts to those who are most vulnerable during this Respect Life Month and always;
We pray to the Lord:

DAR BUEN FRUTO
Las lecturas de hoy ponen su atención en las viñas. El cántico de Isaías respecto a la viña de su amada comienza con inspiradoras y poéticas imágenes de una idílica viña de la cual se espera la más exquisita cosecha. En cambio, la viña da uvas agrias, lo cual hace que el dueño la abandone. El salmista clama a Dios, pidiéndole que la visite otra vez, ya que es la casa de Israel. La parábola que cuenta hoy el Evangelio ofrece la seria advertencia de que a los que cometan traición esperando obtener ganancia personal se les "dará muerte terrible" (Mateo 21:41). Jesús advierte a sus oyentes que no actúen como los viñadores asesinos en la viña. Más bien los exhorta a que produzcan el tipo de fruto que los llevará al Reino de Dios.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
La Virgen María tiene siglos de estar apareciéndose a los cristianos. Aún antes de que fuese asunta al cielo, ella ya se le había aparecido al apóstol Santiago en Zaragoza, España. Según una antigua leyenda, Santiago llegó a tierra española en el año 40 para predicar el Evangelio. Tuvo poco éxito y desanimado pensaba sacudirse de los pies el polvo de aquella tierra y buscar convertir otras gentes. Mientras estaba en oración, María, la madre de Jesús, se le apareció con palabras de consuelo, ánimo y un pequeño obsequio. Le dio una imagen de ella misma sobre un pilar y con el Niño Jesús en brazos.

En esa tierra ella pidió la construcción de un templo donde ella misma sería altar para la gloria de Dios. Santiago mismo construyó la primera iglesia donde hoy se encuentra una gran basílica en honor de Nuestra Señora del Pilar. En el siglo XVIII, el Papa Clemente XII declaró el 12 de octubre como su fiesta en memoria de la llegada de los europeos al continente americano. De María vienen los principios del Día de la Raza.

20th Annual Auction Dinner Dance
An Evening On The Red Carpet
Saturday, November 18, 2017

In November, we celebrate our 20th Annual Auction Dinner Dance. We need help to make our event a dynamic success. “Buy a fabulous bottle of wine” valued at $20 or more—sign your name to the label and then drop it by the Rectory.

On the night of the Dinner Dance, you may buy an Instant Wine Cellar raffle ticket to win a bottle of wine—which you can enjoy with your dinner that evening, or take home for a later time. Instant Wine Cellar raffle tickets will be on sale at the event, and we encourage all of you to participate.

Just prior to the live auction, any ‘unsold’ bottles of wine will become available as a live auction item.

Let’s all help make An Evening on the Red Carpet a dazzling night of good food, good wine, and good friends, all in support of St. Paul’s Parish and St. Paul’s School.

Wine Donations accepted at the Rectory (M-F, 9 am - 4 pm) until Thursday, November 16, 2017
