First Reading

Ex 34:4b–6, 8–9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets. Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, “LORD.” Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, “The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.” Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, “If I find favor with you, O LORD, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own.”

Responsorial Psalm

Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56

R. (52b) Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever;
And blessed is your holy and glorious name,
praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory,
praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you who look into the depths
from your throne upon the cherubim,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading

2 Cor 13:11–13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gospel

Jn 3:16–18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

For Pope Francis, and the leaders of Christian churches throughout the world, that they may guide us to unity in faith, hope, and love, let us pray to the Lord

For an end to the pandemic that afflicts our world, that our God and Father will heal the sick, strengthen caregivers, and help us all endure in faith, let us pray to the Lord

For our community, and for all who worship with us at home, that we may always be secure in the peace and love of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, let us pray to the Lord

For all those who are sick & suffering, and for their caregivers, may they receive God's healing, hope, and tender love. We pray for Con Hagen, Napoleon Flores, and Annette Schubert, and for all those who've asked us for prayers, let us pray to the Lord

For all those who have died, may they be glorified in the gift of everlasting life. We pray for Sr. Jeanette Weis, Lydia Laguardia, Fabio Ramon Suarez, and Edda Warekois, let us pray to the Lord

In the silence of our hearts, let us present to the Lord our personal intentions, let us pray to the Lord

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
